

ELK'S CLUB IS RAIDED AND WHISKEY FOUND

The police raided the Elk's Club, East Main Street, today and took away eight cases of whiskey. The whiskey is stored at the police station. The raid was made by Chief of Police C. J. Rollins and Police Officer Grady Picher.

Chief of Police Rollins said this afternoon that he was waiting for the arrival of Acting Mayor Crawford before serving out warrants in connection with the liquors taken from the Elk's Club.

The whiskey found at the club was addressed to different members of the order, whose names were withheld by the police department.

Police Officer Horace Daugherty found five cases of whiskey in a negro house, and the stuff was taken to the police station. No warrant has been served in this case yet.

POLICE TAKE CHARGE OF MORE LIQUORS

Officers Find About Thirty Barrels and Twenty Cases of Whiskey and Beer Last Night.

A cell on the first floor at the police station looked like a bar-room a week before an election when the sun rose this morning. No less than about thirty barrels and twenty cases of whiskey and beer were stored in the cell, pending developments. Just what will be done with the confiscated liquors is not known.

Acting under instructions of Acting Mayor R. D. Crawford, it is said, Chief of Police C. J. Rollins had the police department on the watch last night, waiting for an opportunity to raid places where contraband liquors could be found.

Efforts to locate the liquors, was by no means a small task, but the police, acting under instructions from their chief were on the job last night, patrolling places where suspicious drays were thought to be liable to pass along.

Police officers were placed on all roads leading into Dothan from Ashford, and Barrett's Station, but in some manner, the wagons thought to be conveying the stuff, are believed to have escaped the police at these places.

About 9:30 o'clock, Councilman Picher telephoned Chief Rollins that a dray load of booze was in his neighborhood, on the way somewhere, and Police Officer Daugherty was dispatched to the scene in an automobile, but it is thought the wagon speeded on before the arrival of the officer.

Police Officer Grady Picher, in Pleasant View, got wind of the affair, and arrived at a store just in time to witness the arrival of the dray. He said he heard somebody say "There's a policeman," and they had a hasty retreat, leaving Tommy Penick, the drayman, with the load. Officer Picher took charge of the outfit, and searched the house into which it was going. The officer found a room containing seven and barrels of whiskey and beer.

Chief of Police Rollins was notified and he went to the store, ordering the stuff taken to the police station.

VILLA LEADS ASSAULT ON VALASCO'S ARMY

(Special to The Dothan Eagle) Torreon, Mexico, April 11.—Driven from San Pedro Colonus by a fierce assault of five thousand fresh constitutionalists led by Villa in person the united federal armies of Generals Velasco, Maas and Demouire have fallen back on Parras and there they are fighting for their lives, according to couriers arriving during the night.

Effecting a union with the other generals at San Pedro General Velasco was whipping the rebels when Villa arrived with fresh troops and artillery, turning defeat into victory. Losses on both sides are heavy, dead and wounded being estimated at fifteen hundred.

DOROTHY ARNOLD IN HER OWN HOME, DECLARES ATTORNEY

Pittsburg, Pa., April 11.—District Attorney Jackson created a sensation here today when he issued a statement declaring Dorothy Arnold is now in her father's home in New York.

In a weakened condition physically and mentally Jackson declares the girl returned home four months ago and her parents are trying to keep the matter a secret.

The statement says the New York heiress came to Pittsburg immediately after her disappearance and was an inmate of the Bellevue house of mystery, in connection with which warrants have been issued against several prominent physicians for illegal practice.

Jackson says after an illegal operation Miss Arnold wandered about the country until picked up by friends and taken home.

pending developments. Billy Cherry, who slept in the store, it is said was questioned as to who the stuff belonged to. It is said that Cherry told the officers that A. M. Stevens and J. D. Hunter had asked for permission to store the stuff in the room, and that it had been granted.

Chief Rollins said he had also received instructions to clear out the red light district, and that the information had been ordered to leave town.

POLICE TAKE CHARGE OF BEER AND MOON

Ten barrels of beer was taken from the place of Gus Stevens in Five Points this morning by the police, and one half barrel of whiskey at Charley Frostwell's, was also confiscated, according to Chief of Police C. J. Rollins.

The raids were made by Chief Rollins and Officer Grady Picher. The liquors were taken to the police station where the stuff is being held until further developments.

Two cases of beer were taken from the store of Horace and May in Pleasant View, according to the police. The raid was made by Police Officer Grady Picher.

Czar Banishes First Cous'n Who Loves American Girl

Princess Helioselsky and the Grand Duke Dimitri, who became infatuated with her. The affair so incensed the Czar, who is said to have chosen Dimitri as the prospective husband for one of his daughters, that he has banished the young nobleman. Dimitri has been ordered to Egypt, with instructions to remain away from Russia at least four months. The Princess is an American. She was Miss Susan Whittier, daughter of the late General Whittier of Boston. As talented and amiable as she is beautiful, the Princess has been a great favorite in court circles here. She inspired the young Duke with an admiration that her friends say is pure and worthy of her.

Lesson Text For April 12, 1914

Subject: The Journey to Emmaus. Luke 24: 13-35. (Easter Lesson). Motto Text. It is Jesus Christ that died, yes rather, that was raised from the dead. Rom. 8:34 (R. V.)

The sun had set and the world was in darkness for the followers of the Nazarene. This princely and incomparable Being, who could raise the dead, still the storm, heal the afflicted, and quiet the troubled heart had been put to death in the most ignominious way, and had met the ultimate fate of the veriest beggar of the streets. And two of his followers, journeying to Emmaus, which was three score furlongs from Jerusalem, were discussing this mystery, to them. And while they communed with one another about the Christ, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, invisibly, at first. This is what always happens when Christ is the topic of earnest, kindly conversation. The way to get the Christ to journey along the way as a companion in life is to study about him, converse about him. After going with them invisibly for a little way he made his presence manifest to them, and asked them about the report of the Jews, for it was all a charade, or ing about as they went along. And and claimed that they had seen as they stopped, utterly broken heart, angol there and found the tomb ed, and were simply amazed that empty. But they had lost their this stranger, of all men in Jerusalem, did not know the things which had just come to pass. Christ to them.

Christ heard all of their lament, and then begin showing them how foolish and short-sighted they all had been. He told them that these things had come to pass according to prearrangement. That it was a pined. They told him there had part of the original plan and purchased a man called Jesus, a Nazarene, who was a mighty prophet like exactly as they had. Then followed great in deed before the men loved the most wonderful sermon and before God, and that this man that has ever been preached upon had been delivered up to be condemned to death and had been crucified. They opened their hearts, of God. And they were only two and told him about their expectations concerning this individual, need hesitate to address the truth. They had hoped that he was the one to a small congregation any more, that was to redeem Israel, and now The Master took up all the parables he was dead. On top of all this ex of Scripture concerning him, the third day had arrived since self, quoted Moses and all the these things came to pass. They prophesied wherein they had referred to had some vague idea of some tri- to him, and gave full exposition to study about him, converse about him. After going with them invisibly for a little way he made his presence manifest to them, and asked them about the report of the Jews, for it was all a charade, or

HUERTA'S PROMPT APOLOGY SAVES TROUBLE WITH U. S.

(Special to The Dothan Eagle) Mexico City, April 11.—That Huerta's prompt apology for the arrest of American marines at Tampico will prevent complications with the United States is believed by the government officials here. Minister of War Blanquet stated today that Colonel Hinojosa, the officer responsible for the incident, has been suspended from duty, pending an investigation and if facts warrant will be court-martialed.

DANIELS HAS NO ADVICES

Washington, April 11.—Secretary Daniels at noon said he was without advice from Tampico in respect to whether Mexican officials had complied with Admiral Mayo's demand that they salute the American flag in apology for the arrest of American sailors. In view of Huerta's prompt apology, said the Secretary, "Admiral Mayo may consider it best to let the matter rest for the present. However we are without advice on the subject."

But, "They had just neglected to read the scripture and the prophets with understanding."

And so it is today, the scriptures are filled with things needed for us, if we will only read and ponder. All of the trials and perplexities and emergencies and confusions of life have been anticipated and provided for in the book. And, if we are sincere and very much in earnest, there is no way for us to make a mistake, for the Holy Ghost is ever ready to make the interpretation.

When these fortunate two reached the village where they were going, this divine associate "made as though he would go further," but they constrained him to abide with them and go in and partake of their hospitality. Christ never foregoes himself upon any one, and yet he never refuses an invitation. All who will may have Christ to come in and abide with them. And so life or career or home is complete without him, but his presence must be sought and invited. This is both the glory and the tragedy of life.

When they had gone in to the table and sat down, Christ took bread and blessed it, and something about the way he did it made them know who had been their companion. And then he disappeared from them, and they did the one compelling thing to all of those who have truly met Jesus Christ, they hurried to spread the message. They went at once back to Jerusalem to tell the glad tidings.

So this is our Easter lesson and proof that Christ is risen from the dead. And it is no more wonderful than the resurrection which is now taking place upon every hand all about us. And those who have met the Christ, and who know in the individual sense of his resurrection, are under the joyous obligation of spreading the wondrous news, coupled with the message that he is able to forgive sins and make whole the life and soul.

BELIEVE NOW GUNMEN WILL GET REPRIEVE

Ossining, N. Y., April 11.—Though sentenced to die on Monday the four gunmen are the most cheerful prisoners in Sing Sing today. Like drowning men grasping at a straw they believed the decision of Justice God to hear arguments for a new trial would mean a long reprieve if not escape from the death penalty. At first they refused to believe the news, but Mrs. Louis Rosenberg, wife of "Lefty Louis" arrived this morning and rendered the good tidings.

That the execution would not take place at the time set was the belief of prison inmates this morning.

O. F. McKinnock and Alon Williams, of Hialeah, were in Dothan this afternoon for a while.

Mrs. A. H. Strickland, of High Springs, Fla., is visiting relatives in the city.

W. H. Oates, was here from Headland today.

J. A. Bennett, of Ashford, was in Dothan this evening for a while.

WANT FARMERS TO DIVERSIFY

Business Meeting of Farmers and Business Men Held in Chamber of Commerce Room Today.

For the purpose of promoting interest in trucking and cattle raising, the Hannon County Farmers Co-operative Association is in session today with members of the Chamber of Commerce in the afternoon North Foster street.

When the meeting was called to order this morning about 11 o'clock by Chairman C. C. Dalton, a large number of interested planters were on hand.

George H. Malone made a sensible talk, pointing out the ravages of the boll weevil in Texas and other states. He urged diversification of crops as one of the main solutions to the problem. An interesting talk was also made by J. L. Crawford.

The meeting adjourned at noon after having reached a decision to visit the farm of J. J. Whitson, where he has a patch of tobacco plants. The farmers, among other things, are interested in the culture of tobacco.

Among those present today were A. Scahill, W. W. Edmon, and W. D. Phillips, all of Crosby, beat eleven; W. A. Calhoun, beat five, Graceville, Fla.; H. P. Hunt, beat three, Dothan; J. A. Gherard, beat five, Graceville, Fla.; J. N. Kibbey, beat eleven, Crosby; S. A. Holmes, beat three, Dothan; W. T. Jarvis, beat nine, Dothan; Jasper B. Harmon, beat four, Dothan; John W. Marshall, beat six, Cottonwood; J. C. Ross, beat five, Graceville, Fla.; John J. Whitson, beat three, Dothan; Helen E. Whitson, beat four, Dothan.

THE GODDESS OF SPRING.

By Rev. E. H. Jennings

Easter had its origin in a heathen custom. Far back of the Christian time, the German and Anglo-Saxon peoples worshipped "the Goddess of Spring" whose name was "Eostre."

In the early Spring time a great festival was held in honor of this goddess with elaborate pomp and profusion of flowers.

In some way this heathen celebration was brought over and adopted by the Catholic Church, identified with the time of the Lord's resurrection. Thus it became a religious festival of high order, and we only think of it today as the anniversary of our Lord's rising out of the tomb.

The formal religious observance of this day is not an obligation of Christians. There was no such observance of Easter in apostolic times. True, the word Easter is found once in the New Testament (Acts 12:4), but the original Greek word so translated is "Pascha," the Hebrew Version, where it is translated the word "passover." It has no reference to Easter as we know it. Indeed, it is the conviction of this writer that no observance of this, or any other sacred day, is wholly cut off from the spirituality laid emphasis of New Testament Christianity. One of the accusations brought against the Catholics by Protestants is "to observe days," the question of just how far the church should go in religious festivals is of course a matter about which good people will differ.

After St. A. D. Martin came to be strictly and pompously celebrated by the Catholics, and has been ever since as observed by this and other Catholic dominions. It is an interesting fact that a long and heated controversy was waged by the early church fathers as to the proper date of Easter, is a result of which the Greek and Roman churches have different Easter days. The Greek church Easter comes about a month later than that of the Roman church.

In the church of the Holy Sepulchre at Jerusalem Easter is celebrated in a most elaborate manner. I happened to be present at this church last year on "Palm Sunday," a week before Easter, and shall never forget the noisy crowds which packed the great building, and kneeling pilgrims from all countries, and the long procession of priests at the head of the patriarch of the Greek church, marching around the building singing and chanting with palms and holding aloft lighted candles. We were to that this service is not to be carried on in any way, and solemnity with the Easter service of the next Sunday.

The patriarch enters the church and deacon forth with the choir of holy Sunday stories as to what Balaam thinks is a good way to settle the Mexican question.

By the faithful ones. The conflict of the struggle to light their lamps from the sacred flame and hastily beat the fire away to light all the candles in the churches of the Greek Catholic world. Often disastrous scenes occur on this occasion—people have been killed in the scramble—and Turkish soldiers are always kept on guard to prevent violence. This is one illustration of the sickening extreme to which a superstitious festival may be carried.

But lying aside the matter of formal religious observance, Easter has a beautiful significance. It is nature's resurrection time. It celebrates the return of the goddess of Spring, who knows all creation into life and beauty. Through out the long, cheerless winter nature has been asleep, but now she rises up, sheds her sombre shroud and bedecks herself with garments of light and fragrance. The dormant embryo is quickened, the seed bursts and flowers spring up from their winter grave. Insects creep again, birds sing sweetly and field and forest are adorned anew.

Is it any wonder that people don their best clothes and try to shine? It is an instinct of nature finding expression. It is right that we should wake up, wash our faces and change our apparel and look decent at Easter. We owe this duty to the goddess of Spring, an aunt and daughters of nature, whose blessings we share. For this is nature's festival—her joyous resurrection time.

And after all, it is not inappropriate that we should think of the Lord's resurrection at this time, and our own rising from the grave when he returns again. True, every Christian Sabbath is a memorial of the resurrection, but what more fittingly symbolizes that glorious event than a Sabbath in spring when all nature is rising out of its winter grave?

In very ancient times the Egyptians, symbolizing their faith in the immortality of the soul, buried grains of wheat in the sepulchres with their dead. Centuries later these grains of wheat have been discovered and planted to spring up and grow and bear fruitage. Thus nature symbolizes and encourages faith in the life beyond. Death is a planting; resurrection is the quickening of life again.

ONE REASON.

Some days ago the Mobile Register made the point that Frank Julian and Leon McCord should be defeated in their race for reelection as railroad commissioners because of their part in the recent rate compromise. One admitted that he signed on the dotted line, without knowing what he signed, when millions of the people's money was given back to the railroads. That was a pretty good point but at the same time there is the president of the railroad commission who had something to do with it and who should, and will come in for his part of the punishment. Everybody knows it was pulled out to do away with Comer's campaign thunder. They didn't anticipate that it would give him more fighting points, but it did. The very fact that the matter was settled as it was is a milking cow for why Comer should win in the coming primary.

Next thing you know Atlanta will be running Detective Bureau for chief of police. He won't touch anything new about the Phoebe Gate but he's on the job and is good copy for the reporters and everybody is satisfied to read a row of holy Sunday stories as to what Balaam thinks is a good way to settle the Mexican question.

THE USE OF TELEPHONES

Telephones are installed for the convenience of people who want to talk.

They are installed for the convenience of people who want to give excuse why they did things or why they didn't.

Some people use telephones for other purposes for courting out but the main use a telephone is put to can be found in the above.

Which reminds us that there is no use in the world in paying out good money for the rental of a telephone unless that telephone is used when the bell rings.

An illustration we know that when things go wrong at the power plant, that everybody telephones at the same time. They are either out of water or out of current and they don't know what's wrong. They know they are not getting the service and want to know when it will start. The superintendent has something else to do besides stand at the telephone when trouble comes up, but someone should be placed there. It is a part of the service the people are paying for. They have a right to know what's wrong and when no attention is paid to complaints, or inquiries over the phone, the people think less of the service. They think some one is showing them gross discourtesy, and it is.

If the water is off, or if the current is off, it is trouble for many people. The employees of the city, with that responsibility, are in trouble too, but the city should arrange a plan by which the people can be taken into their confidence, and their inquiries promptly and courteously answered.

Any business house, or individual, would do as much. There is no reason why the municipality shouldn't do as much.

NOW TO THE SENATE.

From Emporia (Kan) Gazette

The victory of President Wilson over Clark, Underwood and Fitzgerald in the House is a matter for the felicitation from all good citizens of this republic, however these citizens may view the question incidentally at issue. The incidental issue was the canal tolls. That is a subject upon which there is honest disagreement. But upon the attempt of the reactionary democrats to overthrow and humiliate the President in his party, there can be no question. It was a family fight—no far as that issue was concerned, and in the family fight President Wilson had all the heat of it—and all the right in it.

President Wilson has led his party, he has not been a follower. He has led his party forward, he has not marked time and made excuses for his party. He has gone further ahead of his party than anyone but a statesman would dare to do. He has gone wisely and carefully but he has kept moving. And this attempt of the organized reactionaries in his party to block him (killed and felled equally in the House, indicating that the President still has the confidence of this party as well as of all the people.

Now the fight will go to the senate where there is more danger because in the senate the hazard of those making the fight is small and the possibility of hiding one's crime rather wider than in the house. So the President may lose in the Senate. It is unfortunate that the President in making this fight has felt that he should make it an issue in which there are clearly two sides, either of which an honest man may take.

Now just such an issue that the reactionaries were waiting for they have it now, and if he loses this issue he will lose prestige which will hurt him in contests upon which there is no division of

POLICE HAVE HARD PROBLEM

In enforcing the Webb ordinance the police were up against a knotty problem Saturday morning when Chief of Police C. J. Neil and Police Officer Grady Pilcher went to the Atlantic Coast Line depot, where it is said a large quantity of whiskey and beer is stored.

The officers were unable to tell which liquors had been received in Dothan before or after the passage of the Webb bill, and this being the case, the stuff was not molested, for fear the officers might take some action that is not legal. It is said the right of the police to confiscate whiskies arriving since the passage of the Webb bill is clear, but liquors received prior to the passage of the bill, if taken, might cause complications.

WILL MAKE BIG EFFORTS

Reservations for the Dothan party which will take Mobile by storm and make strenuous efforts to bring the 1915 annual convention of the Alabama Sunday School Association to this city, have been made at the Ravage hotel in Mobile. The second and third floors of this hotel will be at the disposal of the local delegation.

The Dothan boosters will leave Monday morning, April 20, at 6:20 o'clock, arriving in Montgomery at 9:50, and leaving at 2:30 in the afternoon for Mobile.

It is not known exactly how many will go, but will probably be one of the largest delegations ever leaving this city to capture a convention.

Great efforts will be made to secure the 1915 convention for Dothan, and all local Sunday School workers are hopeful that this city will carry the point.

No Controversy in Seat This year

There is no controversy as to who was elected executive committeeman from seat thirteen, according to G. H. Malone, chairman of the county democratic executive committee.

This matter has been under consideration for some time, and after a number of his patients have told him that it was difficult for them to see him during the week he decided that it would be proper to make such hours as would make it easier for them to have their eyes attended to without delay.

Make your husband give you a Bank account. No one was ever able to swim without going into the water. How much more going to know how to save money, who never had any money saved? If more men entrusted their finances to their WIVES, would be fewer bankrupts. If men entrusted their wives with bank accounts, they would find at the end of the month that was a BRIGHT BALANCE to the bank, then ever before.

WAS MISERABLE COULDN'T STAND

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lackawanna, N. Y.—"After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my nerves became firm, appetite good, sleep quiet, and I lost that weak, tired feeling. That was six years ago and I have had three fine healthy children since. For female troubles I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."—Mrs. A. F. KRAMER, 1574 Electric Avenue, Lackawanna, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, dizziness, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MIDLAND CITY NOTES

Midland Camp No. 1464 Modern Woodmen of America with 17 members, organized a few evenings since by Dr. Chaudron and Mr. Caughlan. The officers elected were: G. L. Brannon, Consul; J. W. Phillips, Post Consul; A. J. Beverett, Adviser; T. M. Adams, Clerk; A. G. Huggins, Banker; B. C. Baldwin, Escort; J. M. Danford, Watchman; R. Pope, Sentry; Dr. W. A. Parrish, Camp Physician; Dr. W. D. Dixon, J. W. Ties and A. J. Kennedy, Board of Trustees. Dr. Patton has been in the city for the past few days.

Miss Fay Reynolds, a beautiful and attractive belle of Reynolds, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Irby A. Black this week.

Work is progressing nicely on the new residence of Mr. A. E. Fletcher.

The passing of the primary has quieted everything politically around here, except the contest for this district. Mr. J. T. York of this place and Mr. Fred Mullins of Newton, both men of sterling character, the place of Commissioner from water and unquestioned ability, are the aspirants for the place. Both have well defined policies and enthusiastic supporters. Consequently on the heat of the first primary unusual interest has sprung up and the indications are that the contest is going to be far more interesting than in ordinarily the case in the chase after a minor office.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Miss, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year. Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the woman's constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

SPRING 1914-

Spring! Did you hear a thrush call yesterday? Of course it was caroling Spring Clothes—Spring awakes from the heart of Winter with a burning desire for a glad new raiment—even the robins are comparing Poiret and Poquin shades of red. And all of mankind joins in the desire to replace the old and worn with the fresh and stylish. A change from dark and dull shades to beautiful bright colors.

In response to this universal longing, we have spent much time and given much thought to your Spring Wardrobe

Tomorrow, for it is Easter, when the great Spring style show begins—we believe you will be glad that you came here to shop. For your Easter frock, your Easter hat will have a look of individuality about it, that you do not get in any other Dothan store.

Visit us often—we take a delight in helping you plan, and really glad to show you any and everything in this biggest and best assorted stock of Dothan merchandise.
